BELLEFONTE, PA.,

Wednesday Morning, July 31st, 1872.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATE ELECTION AND COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Republican voters of Centre County will meet at the regular places for holding the general election, in their respective districts, on SATURDAY, THE 24TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1872, to elect delegates to the Republican County Convention, which will be held in the Republican Wigwam, at BELLEFONTE, on WEDNESDAY, THE 28TH DAY OF AUGUST, AT 2 O'CLOCK, P. M., said Convention to place in nomination candidates for the following offices, to be voted for at the coming October Election:

One candidate for Congress, subject to the decision of the District Conferee Convention,
One candidate for High Sheriff.
One candidate for the Legislature.
One candidate for Prothonotary.
One candidate for Register, &c.
One candidate for Recorder, &c.
One candidate for County Commissioner.
One candidate for Coroner.
One candidate for County Auditor.

The Delegates thus elected will come prepared to recommend and appoint the Vigilance Committees for their respective districts.

E. M. BLANCHARD,
Chairman Republican Co. Committee.

THE powerful soldier element in this State is said to be almost unanimous for Hartranft and the whole Republican ticket. Why shouldn't it be when Buckalew, Hartley and Thompson did all they could against the defenders of the Union?

POPE'S translation of Homer, book 24, has the following:

"Since Ulysses' band
Hath slain the traitors, Heaven shall bless the land,
None now the kindred or the unjust shall own;
Forget the slaughtered brother and the son;
Each future day increase of wealth shall bring,
And o'er the past oblivion stretch her wing.
Long shall Ulysses in his empire rest,
His people blessing, by his people blest.
Let all be Peace.

THE sympathies of the women of America are with Grant and Wilson. No cause can fail under such circumstances. The preservation of the Union was largely due to the self sacrificing efforts of the large-hearted women of the country. They will, in this campaign, assist in preserving the principles which are hallowed by the blood of national martyrs.

LOOK AT THE LIST.—If the character of the men who have Greeley's ear could only be brought home to the people there would be fear and trembling in the land. It is notoriously true that the worst element of the old Democratic party, like Ben Wood, Isaiah Rynders, George N. Saunders, and men of that class, have not only become his boon companions, but he has seemingly committed his conduct to their direction. If elected, it can readily be seen who will control the old man.

THE editor of the Lewisburg 'Chronicle' asks the following questions:

"Is Greeley for a Tariff or for Free Trade?

If elected will his administration further the interests of America or of foreign capital and labor?

Are his cabinet and his counselors to be Tariff or Free Trade men—Northern or Southern—Republican or Democratic?

Is he for a free vote in North Carolina on the first of August, or for the Ku-Klux?

Who can answer?

Perhaps the 'Watchman' or Centre Hall 'Reporter' will rise to explain. In our opinion Greeley is a queer fish.—Drop the first two letters of his name and you have his true character.

PENSIONS TO REBEL SOLDIERS.

Do the soldiers of Centre county and of Pennsylvania, desire further evidence of the proposition of Horace Greeley to place the Rebel soldiers upon the pension roll and have them receive equal pensions with the "Boys in Blue?" They will find it virtually made by Mr. Greeley in a speech at Vicksburg, during his Southern tour last year, when he declared that

"He hoped the time would come when the soldier who fought with LEE and JOHNSON would occupy as PROUD A POSITION IN THE HEARTS OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AS THE SOLDIER THAT FOUGHT UNDER GRANT AND SHERMAN."

Is this not plain? Is Greeley's consistency not clear as a noon-day sunbeam? Is it any wonder that the Southern Rebel politicians support Greeley? People of Pennsylvania be not deceived.

GREELEY'S CONSPIRACY.

We call the attention of our readers, to the startling political disclosures published on the inside, or second page, of the REPUBLICAN. The evidence of this Greeley-Seymour plot is so strong, that no honest, nor intelligent man can fail to be convinced of the fact, that Horace Greeley is now soul and body transferred to the enemies of Republican institutions, and that he has in consideration of the Presidential bubble, entered into a conspiracy against the Government more wicked and dangerous to the liberties and prosperity of the American people than was the conspiracy of Aaron Burr, or the treason of Benedict Arnold.

The Pittsburg 'Commercial' in speaking of this plot says: "That there was some extraordinarily powerful impelling motive and bond of union lying back of the visible proceedings of the Cincinnati and Baltimore Conventions, more especially of the support of Horace Greeley by the Southern ex-rebels, every man of common observation and intelligence knew, since on no other grounds could the strange and unnatural alliance be possibly accounted for. What the character of this secret agreement was is now for the first time explained in the dispatches printed in another part of this paper. In the light of this revelation the whole shameless bargain between Mr. Greeley and the rebel Democracy becomes easily understood. The agreement of the former to favor the passage of a law providing for the payment of pensions to rebel soldiers, as the price of his nomination and support by the Democratic party tells the whole story. The exposure will fall like a thunder-clap upon the unmasked conspirators, and arouse the people to something like an adequate conception of the perils that were thickening around them. The disclosures not only carry the proofs of their truth upon their face, but they derive strong additional confirmation from the previous course of Mr. Greeley with reference to his proposition that the people should pay four hundred millions of dollars to the slaveholders in compensation for the emancipation of their slaves, his bailing of Jefferson Davis, his demand for universal amnesty irrespective of civil rights, and his general anxiety to stand well in the estimation of the leaders of the rebellion. The exposure of the plot will cause a profound sensation throughout the country."

THE TICKET PERFECTED.

The State Central Committee, met in Harrisburg, on last Thursday, and placed in nomination, for Congressmen at Large, Glenni W. Schofield, (instead of Gen. White, who declined,) and Gen. Charles Albright of Carbon county. This perfects the ticket. The utmost harmony prevailed, and each member of the Committee reported unity and harmony in the ranks of the Republican party, and the State good for twenty to twenty-five thousand for General Hartranft and the entire ticket.

Now let Forney rant, and rage, lie and play the hypocrit and scoundrel as much as he pleases. He can do us no harm. The people understand his motives. They know that he is in league with Buckalew and the Greeleyites, and is working insidiously to defeat General Grant. He is a miserable creature according to his own showing and admissions. He betrayed and sold out the Democratic party, let Republicans be on their guard.

Let measures and men be our motto. Let us rally as we rallied in the dark hours of the rebellion, and strike one more blow for Liberty and against the men who would ruin the country in order that they might rule. Republicans of Pennsylvania, up and at them.

CAMERON ON FORNEY.—A New York correspondent had an interview with Cameron, at his home at Harrisburg.—Simon says Forney's opposition to Hartranft amounts to nothing—people understand the motives. "Forney is nettled because Hartranft caused the exposition that he obtained $2,000 for recommending Evans." He also thinks "Forney will find some excuse for deserting Grant."—The secret for Forney's friendship for Buckalew is that the latter was "on the committee who reported Forney's defalcation when Clerk of the Senate and helped to whitewash him."

THE Brockport (N. Y.) Democrat, always a true party paper, refuses to support Greeley and Brown, and declares that "between the two Republicans" it will have "no hesitancy in supporting Grant."

MEEK ADMITS THE DEFEAT OF BUCKALEW.

In the 'Watchman' of the 19th inst., the question is asked "Is Curtin coming home?" The editor then describes what a glorious state of things it would create in the Greeleyized-Democratic-Buckalew-Mongrel party if "Andy" would come home and pitch in for the aristocratic Buckalew. Meek thinks it would be magnificently grand, and draws a highly colored picture in which we can by the use of a magnifying glass see him in the back ground constituting one of Buckalew's little helpers and placed near the treasury. He works himself up in imagination until he really reaches out his hand to make a grab, that would shame the $20,000 Building Commission Bribe out of existence, when he suddenly awakes from his reverie, to discover that it is only a dream, and exclaims: It is all a dream! It is no use! "At all events it would not be wisdom for the Democracy to count upon his (Curtin's) assistance for Buckalew." We judge his excellency is shrewd enough not to hazzard his political future for the mere personal gratification of crushing out an old man whom Death will, in all human probability, remove out of his way in a very few years more."

Yes, Meek, his excellency is too shrewd, to "hazzard his political future" in the support of Buckalew. What an admission on the part of Meek! Is this not an open admission that even Meek has no hope of the election of Buckalew? Does he not admit that Curtin is too shrewd to hazzard his political chances in so uncertain a game? Does he not admit that neither the shrewdness, cunning nor eloquence of "Our Andy" can save Buckalew or the sinking ship of Democracy?

MR. BUCKALEW NEVER FORGETS HIMSELF.

The Bloomsburg Republican says Mr. Buckalew occupies a strange position. He is a statesman without having a single act to point to which he has originated. He is a patriot, without a single sentence to confirm his patriotism during the period when the noble demands of loyalty even unloosed the tongues of the dumb. He is true to his party since he robbed the county jail to aid rebellion. He is false to Democracy because he boasted that he wrote the call for the Johnson Convention in 1866, and when he found that the party repudiated his course, he denied it. He is now for Greeley, though he has not the courage openly to say so, but if he finds that it is popular he will be for any man. Indeed, there is only one thing that he is clear upon, and that is first and last and all the time he is for Chas. R. Buckalew. He has never ventured beyond this point, and the most sacred personal obligations, social ties and soul inspiring call of patriotism that caused more than a million to rush from the associations of life to the rescue of an imperilled country, never caused him to forget himself, or even made him utter one word of cheer to its defenders. Mr. Buckalew was in the United States Senate for six years, and a number of Democratic papers declared that they might as well have a "wooden man" in the seat. He was afraid to utter a word about the living issues at the time, and now appeals to his cowardice in order to gain Republican votes.

FORNEY pledged the support of the Press, in April last, to Hartranft, should he be nominated. The pledge was positive—unequivocal. His langunge was:

"Now, with all deference to General Hartranft, who, as we have before said, is a good soldier and a worthy man, AND WHOM WE SHALL, OF COURSE, SUPPORT SHOULD HE BE SELECTED BY OUR STATE CONVENTION," &c.

And yet in violation of this pledge, Forney opposes Hartranft, who is to-day the same "good soldier and worthy man" he was in April last, when Forney said he would "of course" support him "should he be selected by our State Convention." He was selected, and the Press does not support him. How can any assertion of that paper be credited after so bare-faced a violation of its publicly plighted word? The stories it publishes from day to day of Republican dissatisfaction with the State ticket—the declarations repeated time and again that it will be opposed by thousands of Republican voters—and other similar statements are all as false as the pledge voluntarily and publicly made by Forney to support Hartranft. The Press has, in fact, become an unscrupulous, unprincipled, treacherous and mendacious sheet.

DEMOCRATIC OPINIONS OF GREELEY.

——"Eating cat pie and calling it venison," is the way the Mobile 'Register,' Democratic defines the unsavory process of swallowing Greeley by the Democracy.

——The 'National Defender'—Democratic—published at Norristown, in its issue of Tuesday, refuses to hoist the name of Greeley and Brown, saying: "The same influences that doomed our party to defeat in 1868, are dominant in 1872, the only difference being, that in the former instance, a Democrat was chosen as the Presidential candidate, whereas in the present a life-long, relentless maligner of Democracy is foisted upon us."

——Riding two Horses—Greely Democrat to an undecided Democrat—As you say, Horace was a Republican, an abolitionist and a free-trader; but he's changed. He's as good a Democrat today as I am. (Impressively.) Look at his letter and the platform!

Greeley Republican to a wavering Republican—Horace Greeley a Democrat! Bosh! He has never changed a particle, and never will change. (With great earnestness.) Look at his letter and the platform.

——The Hon. Judge Black writes the 'York Gazette:' "There are many thousands of men in the party who will refuse to be dragooned or bullied into the support of the ticket. The Greeley men had better suspend their plan of operation immediately. The longer they continue it the less likely they are to succeed in July or November. 'We, the people,' the rank and file, the yeomanry of the country, cannot be driven to the polls as negroes are driven in the south by the carpet-baggers and scalawags."

——Consenting, with not very good grace, to make a square meal of "biled crow," the Louisville 'Ledger' protests, nevertheless, that it is "tired of the silly twaddle that the Greeley ticket is the result of a ground swell of the people, and that the politicians had no part in the matter. The truth is that with the Greeley movement the people had absolutely nothing to do. Traverse the land from ocean to ocean, and from the lakes to the gulf, and not one man in ten can be found who will say that Horace Greeley was his personal choice in this contest."

——A prominent Mississippi Democrat writes to the Chicago 'Times' that so far as that State is concerned, Greeley has no strength with the people, and if the contest is narrowed down to Grant and Greeley, Grant will sweep the State by 50,000 majority. The same state of feeling, he says, exists in other Southern States. He found at Baltimore that the opinion prevailed very generally among Northern Democrats that the Southern people are not only unanimous but enthusiastically in favor of Greeley. This is not so, he says. The masses had no voice in the county meetings, and this Greeley movement in the South is the work of politicians only.

——The Chicago 'Times,' the leading Democratic organ of the Northwest, speaking of the action of the Baltimore Convention, says: "Greeley is now the candidate of the Democratic party, so far as he can be made such; a fact which we regard as a hard one, but which cannot be ignored. It is also a fact that the choice of the people must lie either for Greeley or Grant. The question as to how Democrats shall vote in this contingency, is one to be decided by individual voters themselves, inasmuch as the action of the Baltimore Convention has not placed Democrats under the slightest obligation to vote for Greeley, one of the worst embodiments of Radicalism the country has ever known.

——To show how Greeley's candidacy is received in the first financial circles in New York, we quote the following from the circular issued by Thomas J. Pope & Brothers, metal dealers in that city:

"The nomination of Mr. Greeley has had a depressing effect on business, and has filled the minds of financial men with alarm and apprehension for the affairs of next season, should he be unfortunately elected. His well known 'on to Richmond' measures of specie payments—letting go all the reserve specie and currency in the Treasury, and declaring by act of Congress or by proclamation a return to specie payments the next day; his hatred so vituperatively expressed of the trading classes; his association with Tweed and the deposed ring leaders here, all point in his success to disaster and to the complete disorganization of society—disorganization being his pet doctrine, and 'what he knows' of it his favored practice."

CHANGES FROM GREELEY TO GRANT.

THE New Yorker Democrat and the Abaend Zeitung, of New York, have come out for Grant and Wilson. They have hitherto been liberal Republicans, but anti-Greeley.

HON. Graham S. Fitch, an ex-United States Senator, and life-long Democrat, in Indiana, has publicly announced his determination to support Grant in preference to Greeley.

THE Oil City Bulletin, always a strong Democratic paper, cannot go Greeley, and comes out fair and square for Grant. Of the two candidates, the Bulletin thinks Grant the best fitted for the office, and that is what tens of thousands of honest Democrats also think.

BUT one German paper in the great City of New York advocates the election of Horace Greeley, and it has but little influence, having been the organ of the Tweed ring. All over the country the German journals are with but few exceptions, earnestly supporting Grant and Wilson.

THE New York Evening Post, one of the earliest journals to inaugurate the Liberal movement, now supports Grant and Wilson. Mr. Bryant knows Mr. Greeley thoroughly, and his acquaintance with him has not developed any enthusiasm for the candidate of two conventions.

THE World's dispatch from Washington says: "Information has reached here from Georgia that fourteen Democratic papers out of the thirty-seven in the State are opposing Greeley and Brown, and are representing an element that is quietly talking of bringing out an independent Democratic ticket for Governor. Alexander H. Stephens is prominent in the so-called movement."

THE New Yorker Democrat, an able German paper, with "liberal" tendencies for a year past, has come out for Grant. After seeing that it had favored "liberalism" to strengthen and purify the Republican party, it says:

"The Democratic party, as such, tries hard to obtain control of the national affairs in a manner and through an instrument, the novelty of which justifies the apprehension that there is serious danger ahead. Under these circumstances we cannot but deem it incumbent upon all adherents of the Republican party to rally once more firmly and resolutely around the old party flag, and to unite in supporting the Presidential ticket nominated by the regular Republican Convention at Philadelphia."

HON. S. T. STREETER, has resigned his position as a member of the New York Liberal Republican Committee, and announced his intention of supporting Grant and Wilson. He says, in explanation of his action: "Dissentions occurred in the ranks of the Republican party in this city. I chose to act in my district with, what was known as the Greeley faction, believing that I could there best serve the party, the State and right. But recent events have forced upon me the conviction that the line of duty no longer lies with that faction. The contest is no longer between factions of the Republican party, but between the Democratic and Republican parties—pure and simple. In that contest I propose to stand by the Republican party."

HON. CHARLES ATWATER, who was nominated by the Connecticut Democrats last spring, for Lieutenant Governor, and who the other day openly declared for Grant, was placed upon that ticket at the special request of Governor English, who urged that his strong local influence would very much contribute to the party's success. His indorsement of Grant and Wilson is therefore, one of striking political significance. But the Democratic defection in the State does not end here. Many other eminent members of the party refuse to support Greeley. Hon. Tilton E. Doolittle, one of the ablest members of the party in the State, preserves a silent disgust at a surrender which he deems the distruction of the Democratic party. Ex-United States Senator Stark will not pronounce for Greeley. He is an able and sagacious politician, who stands so thoroughly self-poised that no entreaty will bring him to the support of the surrender. Judge Converse, who has been for a good many years the member of the National Democratic Committee from this State, declares that he "will not vote at all." All over the State may be found men of the greatest prominence in the party, who will, under no circumstances support Greeley; and these are gentlemen of the higest character and ability. It is evident that the Nutmeg State stands in no danger of being drowned out by the "tidal flood."

GEN. JOHN F. HARTRANFT.

The Phœnixville Messenger, published at Phœnixville, Chester county, and heretofore a neutral paper, pays the following well deserved compliment to our candidate for Governor:

"We have received a communication from a subscriber, asking us if we intend 'to support Hartranft?' We answer yes. We will support John F. Hartranft, until the election shall decide whether he shall be Governor, or whether the machinations of a clique having revenge as an actuating motive in their opposition shall win a victory which shall seriously affect the prosperity of this State, and encourage corrupt politicians in future crusade against the rights of the people. Will we support John F. Hartranft for Governor? Yes, and earnestly. We will support him because he is our neighbor, and we know him thoroughly. We take no bonds of mere heresay as to his character; we have known him these years, and can emphatically say that he is honest as the rays of the sun shining from a clear meridian sky.

We will support him because he is the victim of a disgraceful persecution of a few politicians in this State. He is the martyr, not of his own deed, but the statue against which revengeful hands lift bitter blows, because of hatred of his friends. John F. Hartranft is being assailed to-day by John W. Forney and his band not because he is dishonest, not because he is incompetent, not because he will make aught but a pure Governor, for Forney himself has said since Hartranft's nomination, that he would make a good Governor, and that he (Forney) believed him to be an honest man. Why, then, does Forney hunt Hartranft as an enemy follows his foe? Because Forney envies the friends who have espoused the cause of Hartranft, who, as members of the Republican party, are laboring for his election, and whose power in the political world Forney wishes to possess. Forney put forward a candidate for Governor of his own, which represented the clans which opposed the friends of Hartranft. The latter received the endorsement of the people, and consequently Forney was defeated, and his political status became lessened. Forney then swore by the Press that he would have revenge. He cares nothing for Hartranft, nothing for the people. Aye! and nothing for the corruption about which he prates so much. All that he does care for is Forney and his humiliation, and Forney and his revenge. The first he has seen, the second he is bent upon. The avenger is backed by every politician in the State who belongs to his clan. Prominent among them is Dr. Paine, who is making relentless war upon Hartranft because he attributes the cancellation of his Philadelphia college to the influence of the friends of Hartranft. We need hardly say that this college was a mill from which were issued diplomas by the score to ignorant persons, which certified them to be fit to practice medicine. The Legislature abolished it upon the proof brought before its committee that Paine's college was engaged in the diploma selling business. Dr. Paine however, sees in Hartranft the impersonation of his enemies. He is "cheek by jowl" with Forney, and is constantly making trips over the State, interviewing leading Republican politicians, circulating the Press and other sheets adverse to Hartranft's interests. Forney, Paine & Co., therefore, are a band of conspirators, having a common interest and united to gain a common end. That end is the defeat of John F. Hartranft for Governor. We say, then, we are for Hartranft because he is the victim of this clique, and we will fight for him because he must be fought for, else, notwithstanding his personal merits and the right of his cause, he will be defeated. We say to his friends and his party that the strength of the opposition should be appreciated, not underrated. To elect Hartranft we must take off our coats and work harder than Forney, Paine & Co.

We are for Hartranft because he represents the great principle of protection to American industry. We need not rehearse to our readers how entirely the prosperity of the State is bound up in this doctrine. At no time in the history of the country have the Free Trade League made stronger endeavors to make free trade successful, and we can truthfully say that at no time have their prospects been brighter. With the uncertainty of parties and the unsettling of political organizations will come a weakning of the partisans of all doctrines, and the protection question will need all the help it can get to keep it upon its feet. The east has become so wealthy that its manufacturers are able to compete with foreign manufacturers. The west is not yet aroused to the necessity of protecting its growing manufacturing interests, and if Pennsylvania commits the folly of electiag Buckalew, a Free Trade Governor, she may look to her mills, her factories and her foundries with an anxious eye; and instead of her working men being happy in the support of their families, they may expect to see the gaunt wolf, famine, staring them in the face.

We are for Hartranft, then because he is honest; because Forney, Paine & Co., would make him a victim of their revenge; and because it is absolutely required to prevent the election of a Free Trade Governor.

Let the people realize that the fight before us is to be a tremendous one, and that only by combined, persistent effort can they win.

No man is so insignificant as to be sure his example can do no hurt.

STARTLING POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS.

HOW GREELEY WAS NOMINATED.

THE ALLEGED PARTY BARGAIN.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT STATEMENT.

Pensions to Soutnern Soldiers the Bond of Agreement.

BINGHAMTON, July 20.—The pledge of the managers of the Binghamton Republican is at last redeemed, and the great conspiracy of Greeley, Seymour and Hutchins is proven to the world. The "challenge" of twenty day's standing directed to the trio has failed to call forth a denial. One charge was that Horace Greeley agreed in October, 1871, on his own behalf, to be a candidate for President if Horatio Seymour and the Democratic leaders would support him, and that he held a correspondence on the subject; that Mr. Greeley formally recognized his agreement, and communicated the fact of the Democratic proposition to Reuben E. Fenton, who consented to give assistance to the scheme; that Horatio Seymour subsequently agreed to give his support conditionally; that he communicated to Waldo Hutchins on this subject in reference to the Cincinnati Convention, and that Seymour acknowledged the correspondence with Hutchins in a letter dated May 1, 1872, three days before the Cincinnati Convention; that Hutchins responded, and became a delegate to that convention; that the fact of Democratic coalition was well understood by some of the delegates to that convention; and that the expectation of Democratic support secured Mr. Greeley's nomination. The disclosures show that Lewis Carmichael, of Unadilla, New York, is the originator of the movement which made Mr. Greeley the Cincinnati and Baltimore nominee. He wrote to Mr. Greeley last September, giving his views about the coming campaign, and invited him to become a candidate. Carmichael's letter was addressed inside to Hon. Horace Greeley, the next President of the United States. He told Mr. Greeley the time had come "to raft over." Mr. Greeley expressed his willingness to become a candidate, but feared the Democratic leaders would not support him. He invited Carmichael by letter to an interview. He accordingly went to New York, and had a long talk with Mr. Greeley in the Tribune Office, when Mr. Greeley told Carmichael that Seymour was a standing candidate with the Democratic party, and that Seymour would not step aside for him.

Carmichael replied that Governor Seymour had not been consulted, and had not said what he would do. Carmichael then offered to undertake to secure Seymour's consent and co-operation to the movement, and Mr. Greeley agreed to become a candidate if Seymour and other prominent Democrats would indorse him. Carmichael saw Seymour, who was at first inclined unfavorably to the project. He soon saw Seymour again by appointment, and said he, "Seymour had concluded that Carmichael was right, and that the Democrats could support Greeley."

Carmichael soon informed Greeley of his success with Seymour, and went about the State immediately to consult with the Democratic leaders. The first plan was to call a convention in Otsego county to nominate Mr. Greeley and start the campaign. Last April Mr. Greeley wrote to Carmichael that he would withdraw, as he did not think the Democracy would support him, but the latter prevailed on him to stick until he had time to work the thing up. The above is from the lips of Carmichael himself, who, at the close of his statements, nervously said that he would rather be in fire than in the business. Statements are given of several citizens of Otsego county relating to the whole matter, whose characters for veracity are unquestioned, and who are about equally divided politically. G. A. Dodge, editor of the Unadilla Times, Bainbridge Review, and Oneonta Democrat, said Carmichael began to talk of Greeley for the Democratic nominee last fall, and that Carmichael, to prove what he was talking about, produced the Greeley-Seymour letters. Henry Van Deuson, of Unadilla, has seen some of the letters from Greeley and Seymour, among which were quite a number of Greeley's. They all had more or less reference to Mr. Greeley's being a candidate for the Presidency. One letter received from Greeley the last of April spoke of the necessity of some Democrat going to Cincinnati in order to secure his (Greeley's) nomination there, and his preference, was for Carmichael to go. Hon. Robert W. Courtney of Sidney, was shown by Carmichael a letter from Greeley last March on the subject of holding a convention in Otsego county to nominate him. When Mr. Courtney advised him that such a movement at that time would be premature, Carmichael was just starting for Syracuse to have an interview with General John A. Greene, B. F. Arnold, Esq., attorney and counsellor at Unadilla, saw and read the letters of Seymour and Greeley. Carmichael told him that at one of his interviews with Seymour the latter agreed to go and see Hutchins, which he failed to do, but wrote to Hutchins, giving his views on the subject of nominating Mr. Greeley. He also wrote to Carmichael, saying that he had failed to see Hutchins, but had written to him, and inclosed to Carmichael the substance of his letter to Hutchins. Seymour's letter to Hutchins was used at the Cincinnati Convention, and a copy was sent to Fenton. E. M. Packard, Postmaster at Unadilla, saw a letter from Greeley to Carmichael, dated last April, urging the latter to stir around with the Democrats for him (Greeley). Carmichael informed him that he had received the Tribune since April, free of charge. Carmichael said when he went to Albany to see Peckham and Cassidy with his scheme, they called him a fool, and told him to go hame and stay there. There is good authority for starting that Carmichael went to Mr. Folet, a banker at Otsego, and imparted information of his plans, when Folet advanced him money on his wool crop to pay his expenses to Utica and New York to confer with Greeley and Seymour. He frequently visited Folet, and showed him letters dated last October. Letters received from Greeley by Carmichael were enclosed in another envelope and sent to Seymour, and vice versa. In the course of time they were again sent to Carmichael with other letters. William T. Finch, Esq., has had the special privilege of translating difficult letters for Carmichael, and can tell a good deal when he is authoritatively summoned. Carmichael's first interview in the Tribune office lasted four or five hours. The following affidavit is by Charles S. Carpenter, editor of the Oneonta Herald, and a highly esteemed gentleman. Other affidavits will be telegraphed hereafter:

Affidavit of Mr. Carpenter.

ONEONTA, July 17, 1872.—C. S. Carpenter, being sworn, deposes and says that he is a resident of Oneonta, Otsego county, in the State of New York, and that he is well acquainted with Lewis Carmichael, of Unadilla, in said county; that Carmichael has for many years been a Democrat, interested in county, State and national conventions, which he frequently attended, and that he has for about a year past been engaged in seeking a Democratic candidate for the Presidency; that Carmichael was last fall in correspondence with Horace Greeley and Horatio Seymour on the question of making new issues, one of which was the payment of pensions to disabled rebel soldiers as well as to Union soldiers, and that deponent saw letters from said Greeley and from Seymour on that question; that one of Greeley's letters—which deponent recognized by what he knows of Greeley's hand-writing and by the Tribune heading, this letter being an answer to a letter of Carmichael asking his views of Mr. Greeley as favorable to the passage of a law providing that the general government pay pensions to Southern soldiers disabled soldiers, although he (Greeley) doubted whether Congress would pass such a bill; that deponent read the letter carefully, and this was its true expression and meaning, and it was freely discussed between Carmichael and deponent; that this letter was according to deponent's best recollection, dated in August, or early in September, 1871; deponent saw a letter from Horatio Seymour on the same subject at about the same time. Mr. Seymour expressed himself in opposition to making the pension an issue then; that deponent also saw another letter of Horace Greeley, addressed to Carmichael, in which Greeley invited him to call on him in New York, to talk over political matters that had been broached between them; and a separate portion of that letter, which deponent did not then have opportunity of reading carefully, expressed, as deponent casually noticed, and was distinctly informed by Carmichael, the possibility that Greeley would accept the nomination for President, if the nomination were tendered to him in 1872; that Carmichael was absent from Otsego shortly afterward, and received from Greeley, as Carmichael distinctly and emphatically stated to him, Mr. Greeley's positive consent to be the Democrrtic candidate for President in 1872, if the nomination were given to him. The date of this letter was in October, 1871; that Carmichael endeavored to induce deponent to consent to advocate paying pensions to Southern soldiers as a measure of conciliation between the North and South, and to support Mr. Greeley for the Presidency; that it was fully understood between deponent and Carmichael that Greeley was to be pressed for the Democratic nomination; that deponent regarded Carmichael as a candid man, who treated these subjects with the utmost seriousness; and that deponent is fully convinced that his correspondence and interviews, and their meanings and results were described by him honestly and faithfully.

C. S. CARPENTER.

Sworn before me this 17th day of July 1872.

E. M. CARVER, Notary Public.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 20.—The disclosure of the great scheme is causing the most intense excitement in this city. Nothing in past political history has caused such general interest, and the political pulse is fearfully high on all private and public thoroughfares. Nothing else is talked of, and if outside circles are subject to a tithe of the excitement it has caused here, the political world will be greatly shaken.

A NOBLE heart, like the sun, shows its greatest countenance in its lowest estate.

GREELEY-SEYMOUR INTRIGUE.

MORE OF THE BARGAIN AND SALE FOR THE NOMINATION.

In our last issue we gave the material portions of the proofs offered by the Binghamton Republican to sustain the charge of intrigue entered into by Horatio Seymour with Horace to bring out the latter as the Democratic Presidential candidate. These proofs establish a state of things exceedingly damaging to Mr. Greeley and make clear the fact that he was willing to intrigue to almost any extent and with almost anybody. To secure Southern Democratic support he was even willing to promise pensions to rebel soldiers, and this appears to be the bond agreed upon. To these proofs the Republican adds others, and among the list an affidavit by Dr. Ireland, who, under oath, says:

"Deponent was informed, in December, 1871, from the statement of Carmichael, that Greeley had promised Carmichael the tone of the Tribune would be changed about the first of the year, 1872; and that deponent, on noticing, saw the change, which statement of Carmichael deponent can prove on competent testimony of a public officer."

THE CORRESPONDENT.

The Journal appends the following list of the letters, with reference to the corroborative statements of citizens, and promises, if any attempt is made by those implicated to disprove any of its statements, either in Court of elsewhere, to present as much better case than they now present as the case they have made is better than that they promised.

Lewis Carmichael to Horatio Seymour.—August, 1871. Proposing pensions for disabled rebel soldiers. [Affidavit of Charles S. Carpenter.]

Lewis Carmichael to Horace Greeley.—August, 1871. Proposing pensions for disabled rebel soldiers, and asking Greeley's views. [Affidavit of Mr. Carpenter.]

Horatio Seymour to Lewis Carmichael.—August or September, 1871. Declining to advocate then the payment of rebel pensions. [Mr. Carpenter's affidavit.]

Horace Greeley to Lewis Carmichael.—August or September, 1871. Declaring in favor of a law giving pensions, by United States Government, to rebel soldiers, though doubting Congress, &c. [Affidavit of Mr. Carpenter.]

Lewis Carmichael to Horace Greeley.—September, 1871. Addressing Greeley as "next President of the United States," and asking him to be the candidate of the Democrats and all dissatisfied men. Carmichael gave his views about politics. [Statement of Carmichael.]

Horace Greeley to Lewis Carmichael.—October 4, 1871. Deprecating Democratic failure to nominate Chase in 1868 against Republicans; setting Chase aside for 1872 as "feeble and broken down;" proposing united action to "close the wounds opened by the war;" saying he could not see his way quite clearly to 1872. [Already published in part by us, and further certified to by affidavit of Dr. Ireland.]

Horace Greeley to Lewis Carmichael.—October, 1871. Inviting Carmichael to call on Greeley in New York to talk over issues, &c., and expressing possibility he might consent to be a candidate. [Statement of Carmichael, (who testifies Greeley fully consented,) statement of H. H. Howard and affidavit of Mr. Carpenter.]

Horatio Seymour to Lewis Carmichael.—About December, 1871. Referring to interviews of Greeley and Carmichael and Carmichael and Seymour; expressing satisfaction with the progress of affairs; acceding to Carmichael's plan of non-committal tariff issue, and commending Greeley's acceptence of plan, as looking to the end. [Statement of Carmichael and affidavit of Dr. Ireland. Carmichael asserts Seymour's subsequent full agreement to support Greeley.]

Horatio Seymour to Waldo Hutchins.—About February, 1872. Seymour had been unable to see Hutchins, according to Carmichael's request, and so wrote to him. Contents of this letter best know to Seymour and Hutchins. [Statement of B. F. Arnold, Esq.]

Horatio Seymour to Lewis Carmichael.—About February. Statement of these facts to Carmichael. [Statement of B. F. Arnold, Esq.]

Horace Greeley to Lewis Carmichael.—About February, 1872. Suggesting that Democratic influence should be exerted for Greeley at Cincinnati, and that Carmichael should go there. [Affidavit of Dr. Ireland, and statement of Henry Van Dusen."]

Horace Greeley to Lewis Carmichael.—April, 1872. Suggesting that it was not politic yet to undertake an independent movement for Greeley in Otsego county, as Carmichael had proposed. [Statement of Hon. R. W. Courtney.]

Horace Greeley to Lewis Carmichael.—Doubting whether the Democrats would really favor him; and proposing to withdraw from the candidacy; but persuaded by Carmichael to wait and see. [Statement of Carmichael.]

Lewis Carmichael to Reuben E. Fenton.—About March. Inclosing Seymour's letter, noting what he (Seymour) had written to Hutchins. [B. F. Arnold.]

Horace Greeley to Lewis Carmichael.—Stating the results of the Seymour-Fenton correspondence 'all right." [Howard.]

Horatio Seymour to Lewis Carmichael.—May 1, 1871. Stating correspondence about Cincinnati Convention, (as Carmichael explains.) Substance of letter already published, on our authority.]

Horatio Seymour to Waldo Hutchins.—April, 1872. Contents known to Seymour and Hutchins. Stated by Carmichael to be final arrangment for Cincinnati Convention. [Acknowledged in Seymour's letter to Carmichael of May 1. Affidavit of Seymour's acknowledgment if challenged.]

Waldo Hutchins to Horatio Seymour.—On or before May 1, 1872. Contents best known to Hutchins and Seymour. Seymour's letter says the reply of Hutchins was pleasant, or satisfactory. [Acknowledged in Seymour's letter to Carmichael of May 1. Affidavit, if challenged.]

Origin Of The Chester County Hog.

There are many persons who pretend to doubt the existence of a distinct breed bearing the name, but all difficulties in that direction are removed by an article which appeared in the Farm Journal twenty years ago, and which, from the fact that the statement was made at a time when there were fewer interested parties to dispute its authority, may be regarded as correct:

"It appears from what we can learn, that the credit of introducing the Chester county breed of swine is due to Captain James Jeffries, who occupied a farm on the forks of the Brandywine, a few miles from West Chester, after retiring from the sea. His ship used to trade between Liverpool and Wilmington, Del., and on one of his voyages he procured a couple of hogs from Bedfordshire, with the view of introducing them into the country.—This was about thirty-five years ago. They were then called the Bedford breed, and have been recognized by Englishmen who were familiar with them about that time in Bedfordshire. At present, the breed of hogs there is not so distinct, having been crossed more or less with others, from this origin they have been generally distributed in Chester and surrounding counties and are now known as the Chester county breed. They are pure white?"

WATERING HORSES IN HOT WEATHER.—Several writers have of late suggested that in watering horses "while they are warm" in summer is a very bad thing; others say that "more suffer and are injured for the want of water in summer than from too much of it."

The theory of horsemen in general is that it is an evil to perspire freely in warm weather, and that if little water be given them, they can perspire but little. "The more water we give them the more they sweat" On the other hand the laboring man in the open fields tells us he is never so comfortable at work as when he is perspiring freely and he takes his glass of cool spring water as often as he pleases. The argument from this is that what is good for the man is good for the beast. Perhaps so.

We suppose the truth lies midway between these opposing forces. At any rate the discussion will do no harm to the poor dumb beasts interested. Our own experience has been adverse to excessive watering. Even in the harvest field we think moderation is advisable.—Germantown Telegraph.

NEW STYLE OF MILK PANS.—The Jeffersonian, of West Chester, Chester county, Pa., describes some extraordinary milk pans lately made at that place for the dairy of Enos Bernard. "They each measured 12 feet in length and 4 in width, and were about 6 inches in depth. They were double bottomed with a vacuum of about one inch between, which space was divided into four apartments by partitions running lengthwise, and were so constructed to allow water to pass up and down the length of the pan, thus keeping the milk cool or warm at the option of those having it in charge. The four pans had capacity sufficient for containing the milk of one hundred cows, which number we understand Mr. Bernard keeps. It is said by those who have tried this new kind of pan, that a much greater amount of cream is obtained from the same quantity of milk, besides obviating considerable trouble and labor. When the cream is skimmed from the surface, the milk is drawn off at the bottom of the pan into buckets, or whatever other vessel is selected."

TIME and enlightened experience have shown that certain substances formerly used and relied on in medical practice, are unnecessary and dangerous; yet some of these substances have found their way into medical compounds. "Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters," however, contain nothing injurious, being composed exclusively of vegetable substances from California. For all disorders of the liver, kidneys, bladder, skin, and digestive organs, and for purifying the blood they are the most wonderful remedy known. 27-4t.

CAN BUCKALEW BE TRUSTED.

In 1863 Pennsylvania expended about $700,000 in pay and equipment of emergency troops upon the requisition of the government of the United States. This sum could not be repaid without an act of Congress, and Gov. Curtin and Wm. H. Kemble, then State Treasurer, accordingly went to Washington City, and by their personal effort procured the necessary legislation. The bill readily passed the lower House. One hour before it came up in the United States Senate the gentlemen we have named went to Mr. Buckalew, who was then in his seat, announced that the Pennsylvania bill would be reached in a few moments, and asked that he should speak and vote for it. Mr. Buckalew picked up his hat and left the Senate chamber and did not return until the bill had passed finally through the cordial support of Senators from other States, Mr. Cowan being absent on account of ill health. This bill of such vast importance to Pennsylvania passed with neither Senator from Pennsylvania in his seat. Talk of the 'Evans business!" Here is a man who refused to vote to refund to his own State nearly a million of dollars, spent in sustainance of her citizen soldiers, simply because it was so expended, yet asks the patriotic people of Pennsylvania to place him in the seat of Curtin.—Freeburg Courier.

RENOVATING QUINCE TREES.—I had in my garden several trees which for a number of years had never borne the value of one peck of quinces, and I had about made up my mind to destroy them when a neighbor called on me and stated that his had been in a similar conditions until he took them in hand. First he trimmed out all dead and useless wood. He then hoed and cleaned away all grass, etc., which tended to retard their growth, giving to them clean cultivation. He then gave them a thorough manuring with with fresh horse manure, and from that time his trees had never failed to produce a good crop. I accordingly adopted his course to the letter, and so long as I continued this course had an abundant supply: and of the finest quality, says a correspondent of the Fruit Record.

THE SLEEP OF FLOWERS.—Night is the time of repose to the vegetable world as well as that of man and most animals. The marigold opens and shuts with the sun. Many plants are so sensitive that their leaves close during the passage of a cloud. The dandelion opens at five or six in the morning, and shuts at nine in the evening. The common daisy shuts up its blossom in the evening, and opens its "day eye" to meet the early beams of the morning sun. The crocus tulip, and many others, close at different hours toward evening. In a clover-field, not a leaf opens till after sunrise. Those plants which seem to be awake all night, are styled the 'bats and owls of the vegetable kingdom."

DIFFERENCES IN VALUE OF HAY.—There is more difference in the feeding value of what is called "hay" than there is in that of marketable corn. Some hay is, worth a great deal more than some other hay. It is held by our farmers generally that a pound of corn is as good as two pounds of average hay; that twenty bushels of Indian meal, weighing 1,000 pounds. will go as far in wintering cattle as a ton of hay. Some think twelve or fifteen bushels to be as good as 2,000 pounds of English hay. If these estimates be near the truth, it appear that the equivalent of a ton of hay can be had in Indian ocan for $10 to $15, while the hay is held at twice as much or more.—Maine Far.

CLERGYMAN.—"How many essential elements are there in baptism?" Boy—"Three." Clergyman—"Three! I'm surprised. Don't you know there are only two—the word of God and water?" Boy "Why, there must be a baby, and isn't it an essential element?"

A LADY, who asserts that her opinion is based upon a close observance for years of the female, says that men, as a rule, regard their wives as angels for just two months, namely, a month before marrying her, and a month after burying her.

THE capital invested in vessels on the Mississippi river and in the cargoes they are constantly carrying is estimated at $1,500,000,000.

A KANSAS JUDGE angrily dismissed a case because the complaint, a widow of fifty, stated her age as twenty-three.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN JURUBEBA BLOOD PURIFIER

It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies, but it is a MOST POWERFUL TONIC AND ALTERATIVE, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London and Paris, and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

DR. WELL'S EXTRACT OF

retains all the medical virtues peculiar to the plant and must be taken as a permanent curative agent.

IS THERE WANT OF ACTION IN YOUR LIVER & SPLEEN? Unless relieved at once, the blood becomes impure by deleterious secretions, producing scrofulous or skin diseases, Blotche, Felons, Pustules, Canker, Pimples, &c., &c.,

Take JURUBEBA to cleanse, purify and restore the vitiated blood to healthy action.

HAVE YOU A DYSPEPTIC STOMACH? Unless digestion is promptly aided the system is debilitated with loss of vital force, poverty of the Blood, Dropsical Tendency, General Weakness or Lassitude.

Take it to assist Digestion without reaction, it will impart youthful vigor to the weary sufferer.

HAVE YOU WEAKNESS OF THE INTESTINES? You are in danger of Chronic Diarrhoea or the dreadful Inflammation of the Bowels.

Take it to allay irritation and ward off tendency to inflammations.

HAVE YOU WEAKNESS OF THE UTERINE OR URINARY ORGANS? You must procure instant relief of you are liable to suffering worse than death.

Take it to strengthen organic weakness or life becomes a burden.

Finally it should be frequently taken to keep the system in perfect health or you are otherwise in great danger of malarial, miasmatic or contagious diseases. JOHN Q. KELLOGG, 18 Platt St., New York, Sole Agent for United States. Price One Dollar per Bottle. Send for Circular. 29-4t

THE REPUBLICAN FOR THE CAMPAIGN. CLUBS! CLUBS!

We are now about commencing another great battle for the salvation of the Union, and perpetuity of free Government, of Republican Institutions. We have the same enemy to contend against, the same party and faction that trampled the old Flag—the Star Spangled Banner, under their feet in 1861, and that fired upon Fort Sumpter. We punished them then for their treason, we must not permit them now, since they have assumed another shape, to secure through the ballot box, what they failed to secure through four years of bloody war—the dissolution of the Union, and the formation of a Southern Confederacy.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty." We must be active.

We must be watchful and ever on the alert. We must circulate papers and documents in order that every voter may fully understand the issues and vote intelligently in the approaching fall elections.

To this end we offer the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN from the 1st of August to the 1st day of December, 1872—FOUR MONTHS—for 60 cents to single subscribers, or to clubs of FIVE, TEN, TWENTY or more at 50 cents per copy.

Now, let our active energetic friends bestir themselves and send in LARGE CLUBS from every township and Borough in the county. IN EVERY CASE THE MONEY MUST ACCOMPANY THE ORDER. Get up the clubs. Send in the names and money.

—Judge Twiggs, of Georgia, exposes the plot to the success of which Republicans are invited to contribute. He says that though Greeley may do everything Democrats desire, his candidacy "necessarily involves a Democratic majority in Congress" and the supremacy of that rule wherefrom the South will derive peculiar advantage. A delightful entertainment to which to invite Republicans!

SOME of our Democrats would like to know whether Buckalew will withdraw. He was nominated by the Democratic party, but that party having sold out to the Liberals, he is now the standard-bearer of nobody.—Reading Times.

Not quite correct Mr Editor of the Times. He was nominated at Reading as the Democratic Candidate, by and through the treachery of Jno W. Forney. Perfectly correct, however, in your statement of the Democratic party having been swallowed by the Liberals at Baltimore.

THE Pottsville Standard, the Democratic organ of Schuylkill county, is not pleased with the course of the Delegates from this district to the Baltimore convention. In its issue of Saturday, it says:

In the Baltimore Convention, both the delegates from this Congressional District, William M. Randall and C. D. Gloninger, in contempt of the wishes of the Democracy of Schuylkill county, as expressed in a resolution of instruction adopted without a dissenting vote by the county meeting, voted against that pure man and distinguished statesman and Democrat, Hon. Jeremiah S. Black, and for Horace Greeley. We have no desire to open old wounds, but we desire to enter our protest against the insolent presumption which set at naught the unanimous wish of the Democrats of this county, at least, and as we have been creditably informed, and believe, that of Lebanon also. The Greeley pill would not have been quite so bitter, had the 10th District been honestly represented, and the wishes of her Democracy complied with. There is a time coming, when some individuals will comprehend the fact that the will of the people is more powerful than the tricks and trades of politicians.

THE TROUBLE AT WILLIAMSPORT

[From the State Journal.]

There is always two sides to a question, and the statement of every difficulty can be met by a counter relation quite as worthy of credence as the first. Thus the difference arising in all parts of the country, between capital and labor, are the results, not altogether of unjust exaction on the part of strikers, as some are disposed to believe, so much as they are the resistance of a long series of petty oppression and exhaustion of blood and muscle to which capital the world over is inclined to resort to increase its volume. As we understand the difficulty at Williamsport, it has grown out of a demand on the part of the men engaged in the lumber mills to have their time of labor reduced from fourteen and twelve, to what is a legal day's work, ten hours. This is what we understand to be the issue. We know nothing whatever of any other differences between the mill owners and their employees, and have viewed the strike from this standpoint, as that of a set of hard-working men seeking only for what the law accords, which is resisted by still others, who, in their greed for gain and pursuit of speculation, demand to work human beings like beasts of burden, asserting as a plea therefor that their interests warrant the proceeding. We submit to the impartial reader (if the facts are as we understand and have stated them) to say who is wrong in this case. By every principle of right and justice, the demands of these men for the ten hour system ought to have been accorded by the employer. It was unfair to force these hard-working men into a strike—while the threat and the practical carrying out of a purpose to starve them into submission, was well calculated to excite and arouse and phrensy men who had wives and babies depending on them for bread. We have no apology to offer for any act of violence comitted at Williamsport, nor are we inclined to defend or excuse the tyranny and exaction of the employers there, who, grasping and greedy, and privileged as corporations, to exact and oppress, not only their own agents and employees, but the general public, too, have provoked this state of affairs, have brought it about by refusing to recognize a just and fair law, that of making ten hours a days work. The mill owners of Williamsport, after having exasperated and starved their employees, who in a moment of phrenyy attack men that have been induced to go to work, are very prompt to call on the military authorities for aid, regardless of what the expense is to the people and not caring whether hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent or lives lost so that they are protected in refusing to recognize the plain letter and spirit of a law. Public and private property must of course be protected—the peace of a community must be ensured, and the law obeyed. We favor all this, and disapprove of violence in all shapes, but when the mill owners refused to recognize a law fixing the time of labor, and insisted on forcing men to work beyond its limits, they were the orignal rioters, they took the first step in this scene of disorder, and they are entirely responsible for the confusion and loss which have followed, actually compelling the people of Pennsylvania to risk their lives and spend their money in a struggle to enable them to trample on the laws regulating labor. God knows the mass of laborers have little enough of legislation in their favor, while environed by the special privileges of the capitalist and corporator, who monopolize and dictate the legislation of the land. The day is fast coming when this must be changed. The laboring man and mechanic, educated in our public schools, stand forth intelligent and thinking men, who can no longer be driven like beasts of burden, or trampled upon like vermin. That day has passed forever, and they who seek to recall it are the real authors of the trouble which has occurred at Williamsport. In this connection, we stand on the verge of a mighty revolution, of an uprising which will shake this country from its centre to its circumference. All over the civilized world the same deep feeling prevails, and labor is looking up, not down, as it advances towards emancipation. In England the struggle of the farm hand is of a kin to that of the contest of the mill man at Williamsport. In Germany and France the air is hot with like determination. In our country some mechanics are even demanding and having awarded eight hours as a day's work, so that we are not surprised at the movement at Williamsport, where ten hours, the legal time, is asked for. Nay, we are astonished at the obstinacy which refuses so reasonable a request. It looks like a tyranny which deserves to be resisted.

THE Greeley cause has another valuable accession in Minnesota in the person of Hon. Ignatius Donnelly, who, like many of his Greeley supporters, has been "everything by turns, and nothing long." The following is his record epitomized: Free trade Democrat; high tariff Republican; Republican bolting candidate for Congress; returned prodigal and repentant Republican; deserter to the Greeley Democracy.

POLITICAL.

—General Bragg, late of the Confederate army, is shouting the battle cry of Greeley, in the South.

—Gen. Porter of Gen. Grant's staff is shortly to make public a list of prominent Democrats who are going to stump the country for Gen. Grant.

—The whole business, commercial and banking interests of the country are also "frightened" at the results likely to follow the election of a man of Mr. Greeley's peculiarities and disreputable surroundings.

—An exchange says: "The tanning and manufacturing busines, this season will be unusually profitable. Grant will tan the hides of the enemies of equal rights, and Wilson will make them up into shoes for liberty's vanguard."

—The Pottsville Standard (Dem.) publishes the following epitaph:

Under these stones,
Sleep Democracy's bones;
Do you ask why it perished so early?
It was feeling quite ill,
And swallowed a pill
Compounded by one Doctor Greeley.

—The Greeley Banner, published by E. H. Rauch, supports Greeley and Buckalew, while the Philadelphia Morning Post supports Greeley and Hartranft. As we understand it, Greeley has gone over to the Democracy, and we are astonished that any true Republican should any longer attempt to uphold him.

—"Among the States," says the New York 'Staats Zeitung,' "which Greeley can under no circumstances get is Pennsylvania, and that, because of the Democrats in that State of German extraction, not a man will vote for Greeley. This is plainly shown by the position of the entire German Democratic press of that State."

—The Missouri Staatz Zeitung has a calculation upon which it bases the conviction that Grant will receive a majority of 10,000 in Missouri. Aside from the important changes wrought in the relative strength of the parties by the enfranchisement of the colored men and the immigration of voters from other States, the Missouri Staatz Zeitung asserts that since 1870 the number of Liberal Republicans has fearfully decreased.

—A Hoosier Democrat illustrates his views upon the situation as follows: "It is only the people who think a little who aid in the work of civilization. The boy who refused his bread and butter was one of this kind. 'Isn't it good bread?' asked the nurse. 'Yes.' 'Isn't it good butter?' 'Yes.' 'What's the matter, then?' 'I don't like the way the thing is spread.' That tells the whole story. Bread, the Liberal Convention to be Grant. Butter, the Cincinnati platform. The spread, Greeley. Faugh! What thinking Democrat can eat it?"

—In 1869, certain Republicans in the New York Legislature sold out to Tweed and Tammany; whereupon Mr. Greeley remarked: "You must stop electing to the Legislature such men as Mattoon, Akin, Bemus, and three dozen more such, or corruption can never be vanquished. If you lie down with such dogs you will get up alive with fleas."—The three men named are now for Greeley, and Mattoon was in consultation with the philosopher a few days ago.—It is to be presumed that the genial Horace is now as lively as association with such "dogs" can make him.

—I did not go into public life for the purpose of making profit for myself."—Buckalew's Harrisburg speech:

C. R. Buckalew to United States, Dr.

To 6 years salary as U. S. Senator, $5,000	$30,000
Outfit as Minister to Ecuador,	6,500
Four years salary for same, $7,500	30,000
	$67,500

To State of Pennsylvania, Dr.

To salary as member of Constitutional Convention	$ 1,000
Three years salary as Senator	2,000
" " " " 2d term	3,000
Extra pay to put McClure into his seat upon contest	500
	$ 6,600
Total	$74,100

—The Christian Union (Mr. Beecher's paper), referring to the situation in the political field, says:

"The changes of sentiment which we anticipate are, that the sincere Liberal Republicans, excepting such prominent leaders as are too far committed already, will quietly determine to vote for Grant as the best President they can now obtain, though not the man of their choice; that many ultra Democrats will abstain from voting, and a few will even vote for Grant, though doubtless the majority of them will feel the power of the ancient discipline, and sullenly fall into the ranks before November. But whatever is done to make old Democrats vote for Greeley, tends to make old Republicans vote for Grant."

—The Fulton, Illinois, Democrat, a strong Democratic paper, has been discontinued. The editor says: "We cannot consistently support these nominations (Greeley and Brown), and therefore withdraw from the canvass. It is useless to fight the inevitable. Greeley and Brown have been almost unanimously endorsed at Baltimore, and a large proportion of those who have heretofore acted with the Democratic party are enlisted in their support. From our standpoint we are unable to sympathize with their advocacy of these candidates and we yield to the wishes of the majority in discontinuing the Democrat.—Policy at this time cannot gain the ascendancy over principle, in our mind."

PAY UP.

We hate these duns and we know our readers do. Those who have paid, and always do pay in advance, need give themselves no concern about it; and those who owe us from TWO to FOUR years we are exceedingly anxious that THEY should give themselves some concern, and give their immediate attention to this DUN. We need our money and must have it. We, therefore, expect all who owe us for two years, or more, to PAY UP BETWEEN THIS DATE AND THE FIRST OF AUGUST NEXT. It is now about the beginning of hay-making and harvest, when everybody young and old has money. Now, is the time to pay your printer's bill. Do not pay every other bill and forget us, simply because we are good natured and lenient.

If these bills are not punctually attended to by the 1st of August, we will then LOSE OUR GOOD NATURE for a time and place our bills against you, in the hands of a JUSTICE OF THE PEACE IN THE RESPECTIVE TOWNSHIPS IN THE COUNTY FOR COLLECTION. We repeat, that we need our money and must have it. We know that our patrons will heed this DUN, as they do not wish us to enter this campaign with our hands and our tongue tied.

ADMIRAL SEMMES made a speech at a political meeting in Mobile the other evening, in which he said: "It is Horace Greeley who has come to the captain of the Alabama, and not the captain of the Alabama who has gone to Greeley. He stood where he had always stood. He preferred him to any war Democrat. Baltimore could only have nominated a war Democrat. We would not destroy the integrity of the Democratic party by voting for Greeley. Let the dead past bury its dead. Let us shake hands over the chasm."

THE relaxing power of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is truely wonderful. Cases are already numerous where bent and stiffened limbs have been limbered and straightened by it. When used for this purpose, the part should be washed and rubbed thoroughly. Apply the liniment cold, and rub it in with the hand.

A crowd of "Horse Men," and others, daily throng the stores in country and town for Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders. They understand that horses cannot be kept in good condition without them, and with them can be on a much less quantity of grain.

"ANYTHING to beat Grant," is what Jeff Davis and Lee said in 1864 and 1865. That is just what McClure and the Greeley gang are crying out now, and why they are so anxious to defeat the gallant soldier and honest and incorruptible officer, General Hartranft.—Elect Buckalew and Hartley, the recorded rebel-sympathizers, and Grant is certain to be beaten.—Pittsburg Mail.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

Whereas the Hon. Charles A. Mayer, President of the court of Common Pleas, in the 25th Judicial District, consisting of the counties of Centre, Clinton and Clearfield, and the Honorable W W Love and the Honorable Henry Dopp, Associate Judges in Centre county, having issued their precept, bearing date the 30th day of July, A. D., 1872, to me directed for holding a court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in Bellefonte, for the county of Centre, and to commence on the 4th Monday of August next, being the 26th day of August 1872, and to continue two weeks.

Notice is therefore hereby given to the Coroner' Justice of the Peace, Aldermen and Constables of the said county of Centre, that they be then and there in their proper persons, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, with their records, inquisitions, examinations, and their own remembrances, to do those things which to their office appertains to be done, and those who are bound in recognizances to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the Jail of Centre county, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Given under my hand, at Bellefonte, the 30th day of July in the year of our Lord, 1872, and in the ninety-fourth year of the Independence of the United States.

D. W. WOODRING, Sheriff.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS | NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A NEW CANDIDATE FOR PUBLIC FAVOR.

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

BY ONE WHO KONWS.

A good sewing Machine I long have sought,
And tried them all but found it not,
Until the New Victor it came out,
And now I have one without a doubt.

It runs so easy and sews so nice,
I would not be without it for any price.
Its self-setting needle is so neat,
And everything else is most complete.

It sews through thin, it sews through thick,
And when you sew it never sticks,
So when you sew, you have no trouble—
I'd have a VICTOR if it's price were double.

READ! READ! READ!

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL WHO ARE IN WANT OF A SEWING MACHINE.

The New Sewing Machine VICTOR has not its equal in the world for family sewing. It is made of the finest material and of most perfect finish, and no pains or expense is spared to make the Victor Sewing Machine, in all its points, fitted to meet the wants of every family in the land.

TWELVE GOOD REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY THE VICTOR:

1.—It is the only Lock-Stitch Machine that has its needle Self-Setting.
2.—All lost motion can be readily taken up in all its parts.
3.—The needle being Straight, and Self-Setting, much of the perplexity and trouble to new beginners is avoided, as the needle cannot be set wrong.
4.—It has a positive Thread Controller and Tension, which enables it to sew with equal precision, from the most delicate texture to the heaviest material.
5.—It uses with equal facility Silk, Linen, or Cotton Thread.
6.—It uses the same size thread on the under as on the upper side, and sews across the heaviest seam, or from one to many thicknesses of cloth, without change of needle, tension or thread.
7.—There are no springs or cog wheels to break and get out of order.
8.—It is the simplest and strongest family sewing machine of all the varieties now in use.
9.—Every motion is positive, and it runs light and easy.
10.—The shuttle is carried on an independent table, which prevents its wearing out, and at the same time does away with oiling, thus avoiding greasing the work.
11.—It is simple in its construction, and the most inexperienced person can operate and regulate it.
12.—Its price is as low as any other first-class machine, and should be tried by all who want a good, reliable machine. This new machine can be seen at the large Ware Room, where all are invited to call and see it operate. Having confidence that the Victor will meet with public favor, we are willing, when parties desire to purchase, to send it to their homes on trial, with complete instructions how to use it. Every Machine is Warranted. Traveling Agents Wanted.

MRS. IRWIN'S BUILDING, ALLEGHENY St., BELLEFONTE, PA.

PATENT FORGE FIRE!

STOCK AND LABOR SAVED!

NOTICE is hereby given that George Thomas, of Milesburg, Centre county, Pa., has procured a patent on the "Double Tweer Forge Fire," with the improvement of Beveled Plates for the manufactory of Bloom Iron. The Double Tweered Fire has been tested by many Iron Manufacturers and it is acceded that it far surpasses the old fashioned fire in saving stock and producing a better quality of Iron. Any person or firm wishing to procure the right to erect and use said fire, can obtain all the information requisite, by addressing the undersigned at Milesburg, Centre county, Pa.

THE WAY TO KILL A TOWN.—If you have a house to build, send off for the material, and even employ workmen away from home to do the job, while your home mechanics lay idle for something to do. Send what money you have to spend away from home. You will probably get it back again, but woe to the mechanic and laborer, if he must wait until it comes. It may do for those who can stand it, yet it will never do for the poor man, as he must go somewhere to get his bread.

If you see a stranger come amongst you, just pick and fleece him of all he has. It will make you rich, but it does not give the people of your place a good name abroad, and no one would wish to settle where they were in danger of thus being robbed of what they have.

Have a high esteem of that mighty person, myself. Don't think any one else as good, intelligent, or as respectable as yourself.—Don't associate with, or look upon them kindly. Consider them beneath you, then they will feel the sting of contempt, and leave your place to seek other quarters where they will receive better and kinder treatment.

Frown down every attempt to improve and advance the interests of the place, because your taxes are to be raised a mill or two, to make the necessary improvements.

If you want a newspaper in the place, don't support it. Say, "it will not pay to subscribe for a paper, times are too ard.—Hautingdon Journal.

COL. WM. SIRWELL, of the Seventy-eighth Pennsylvania Volunteers during the rebellion, and a life-long Democrat, declines the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Twenty-third district, tendered him by Armstrong county. Col. Sirwell ran against Hon. E. McJunkin for Congress two years ago, and polled quite a complimentary vote independent of his party. The Colonel will not only not run on the Democratic ticket, but says:

As I am under no obligations to the Democratic party, I do not regret to say that I will support General Grant for President, and the entire State and County Republican tickets.

Respectively yours, WM. SIRWELL.
Kittanning July 17, 1872.

Col. Sirwell was a gallant and well disciplined soldier, and had the esteem and good will of the men of his regiment. Nearly all of his old comrades in arms will follow him into the Union Republican ranks.

HOW LONG DO PRINTERS LIVE?—The average age of farmers is sixty-five, while that of printers is thirty-three, which shows the necessity of prompt payment to the latter, so that they may have the pleasure of handling their own money during their short journey on this sublunary sphere. A great many people imagine that printers live on rollers, wood type, "pi," and such "fixings." This is a mistake. Printers live as other people do, and in order to do this they must have money to obtain the necessaries of life, and flatter themselves that some day they will get it from their patrons.

THE Albany Evening Journal says the Greeley camp is a sort of hospital for political invalids who have been given up by all decent doctors as chronic knaves, hopelessly incurable, and who now resort to the Cincinnati quacks to procure plasters for their damaged reputations. Falstaff's battalions were moral princes in comparison."

"WE stoop to conquer" should be the motto of the Democracy since the nomination of Horace Greeley. Even though victory should be obtained at such a price, which is not probable, it would be like the one Pyrrhus obtained over the Romans who said when congratulated, "One more such victory and I am undone. Every vote for Greeley by a Democrat is a humiliation, and the once honored party is now asked to "stoop" and kiss the foot that has often kicked it.

A TELLING argument in favor of the industrial training of the masses is afforded by the fact that but about three per cent. of the country have been trained to any craft.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFOKM.

Below will be found the Resolutions adopted by the convention which placed in nomination Gen John F. Hartranft, Hon. Ulysses Mercur, Gen. Harrison Allen and the entire State Ticket. The Resolutions were written by that clear headed and efficient Republican—Russel Errett, Esq., and have the true ring. Republicans, workingmen and all honest Democrats, can safely stand upon this platform. Let them be carried out in good faith and there need be no fears entertained in regard to the salvation and perpetuity of the government either State or national:

1. That we reaffirm our devotion to the principles of the Republican party, and our belief that the continued existence of that party is necessary to the maintenance and success of those principles. The grand and fundamental idea of the equality of all men in political rights is not professed by any other party, and can be sustained faithfully only by those who are sincerely committed to it.

2. That the adoption of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States has not been sufficiently acquiesced in by all to render certain and secure their permanent incorporation in that instrument, and hence the administration of the government can safely be entrusted only to that party which is heartily, and beyond question, committed to them, and the policy necessary to put them into successful operation.

2. That we are now, more than ever, called to sustain the policy of national protection to American industry. If the laborer is worthy of his hire, and a fair day's work entitles the worker to a fair day's pay, we must continue to throw the protecting arm of the government around those who toil for their daily bread. The protective policy alone makes labor contented and capital secure. It renders employment certain, and pay ample and satisfactory; whilst free trade means that our laborers and mechanics must either work for lower wages or that our factories should be closed through foreign competition, and the workingmen of the country deprived of employment.

4. That the public lands belong to the people, and should be reserved for the people. We, therefore, pronounce most decidedly against any further appropriation of the public lands in behalf of corporations or individuals. All lands not sold according to law should be open to preemption and actual settlement.

5. That we demand a continued adherence to the policy hitherto pursued, under Republican auspices, in our State and in the nation, of a steady and gradual reduction of the public debt. The interests of the people require that the most rigid economy should be practiced in the administration of both the Nation and the State governments, and that taxes should be reduced in both as rapidly as is consistent with the honorable maintenance of the public credit, and the certain extinguishment of all the public debt.

6. That we are earnestly in favor of the earliest possible removal of the duties on tea and coffee, and urge the prompt passage of the bill for that purpose now before Congress.

7. That we heartily approve of the act of Gen. Grant in giving a trial to the plan of civil service reform. We demand that the plan, or any other that may be substituted in its place as better, shall have a fair and unembarrassed trial, that every effort shall be made to secure competent men for public service, and that honesty and incorruptibility shall be deemed qualifications as essential as competency and intelligence.

8. That the Republican party has given full evidence during the past eleven years of its ability to administer the government honestly, faithfully and successfully. It has, within that time, maintained the honor of our National flag at home and abroad; preserved the Union from disruption and restored it in its integrity; secured to all classes and conditions of men the rights given to them by their Maker, and having proclaimed liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof, has given to that proclamation the full effect to which it was entitled; and we therefore, in its name, claim from the people a continuance of their confidence, and fearlessly challenge their scrutiny into its acts.

9. That we point with pride to the record of Gen. Grant's administration of the National Government. Not only has the weight of internal taxation been almost wholly removed from the people's shoulders, but three hundred millions of the national debt have been paid off—a result never before attained by any other people under like circumstances, and for which we are indebted to the rigid honesty, strict economy and sterling integrity which the President has brought to the administration of a national affairs.

10. That we present his name for renomination to the Presidency, confident that the people will again rally to the support of the man who so nobly fought their battles; who, under the guidance through its struggle to maintain its existence, and who has since so successfully administered the affairs of the government as to command general admiration, at home and abroad.

11. That we will stand by the government in the foreign policy so firmly marked out and adhered to by President Grant. The honor of the nation, we feel, is safe in his hands, and the flag under which he never suffered defeat, will not be dishonored while he is kept in the front.

12. That we congratulate the people of Pennsylvania on the final accomplishment of the call for a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of the State and we earnestly urge upon our friends to see that delegates, are chosen in their respective districts committed to the policy of incorporating in that instrument a clear and decisive prohibition of special legislation.

13 That we hereby declare our opposition to every effort to withdraw from the sinking fund of the Commonwealth, either by substitution, exchange or otherwise, any of the bonds, securities or moneys now pledged to it, and through it to the payment of the public debt of the Commonwealth, and our inflexible determination to preserve the same, inviolably, for the fulfillment of the Commonwealth's obligations.

14. That the oil producing, mining, lumbering and manufacturing interest of the State require protection from the efforts of dangerous combinations, and that such laws should be enacted by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth as will protect said interest, both in their development and the transportation of their productions to market.

15. That the thanks of our party are due to Governor John W. Geary, under whose lead our principles have twice been successfully vindicated in Pennsylvania; the State debt has been reduced during his administration; our soldiers orphans have been carefully cherished and educated; and our laws have been efficiently and wisely enforced. Under the necessity of parting with him as Governor, in conformity with the Constitution of the State, Governor Geary carries with him in his retirement the heartfelt wishes of its people for his future prosperity and happiness.

16. That we present with peculiar pride and especial confidence of their success, the names of Gen. John F. Hartranft for Governor, Ulysses Mercur for Supreme Judge, Gen. Harrison Allen for Auditor General, and the gentlemen this day named for delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention. They are all men worthy of an active and ardent support at the hands of the Republican party, and we call upon our friends throughout the State to rally as one man to secure their triumphant election.

17. That the President of this Convention, in connection with the candidates this day nominated for State officers, appoint the chairman and one Secretary of the State Central Committee, and that the State Committee be made up on the basis adopted last year, and the two years preceding.

AN APPEAL!

To Debilitated Persns,
To Dispeptics,
To Sufferers from Liver Complaint,
To those having no Appetite,
To those with broken down Constitutins
To Nervous People,
To Children Wasting Away,
To any with debilitated digesti'e Organs

Or suffering with any of the following Symptoms, which indicate Disordered Stomach or Liver.

such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure Juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS, and BARKS, (or, as medicinally termed, Extracts,) the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore in one Bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons or ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, when they compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others: no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CRUZ RUM, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1,50 per Bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article? A medicinal preparation should contain none but the best ingredients; and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound, and be benefittad by it, will most certainly be cheated.

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at present Member of Congress from Pennsylvania, writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1871.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in case of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON. JAS. THOMPSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1867.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my own experience of it.

Yours, with respect, JAS. THOMPSON.

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1, 1868.

I have found by experience that "Heofland's German Bitters" is a very good tonic, relieving dyspeptic symptoms almost directly.
GEORGE SHARSWOOD

HON. JAS. M. WOOD, Ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pa.

I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's German Tonic" to any one who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so week, as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure. JAMES M. WOOD.

REMEMBER
THAT
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Will Cure every Case of
MARASMUS,
Or Wasting away of the Body.
REMEMBER
THAT HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES

Are the medicines you require to purify the Blood, excite the torpid Liver to healthy action, and to enable you to pass safely through any hardships or exposure.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
PODOPHYLLIN,
Or Substitue for Mercury Pills.
TWO PILLS A DOSE.
The Most Powerful, Yet Innocent Vegetable Cathartic Known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these Pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the Liver, Stomach and Bowels all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the Alcoholic Extract of Mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting and searching than the Mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the Liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of Mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases, in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They NEVER FAIL.

In cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic should be used in connection with the Pills. The tonic effect of the Bitters or Tonic builds up the system. The Bitters or Tonic purifies the Blood, strengthens the Nerves, REGULATES the Liver, and gives strength, energy and vigor.

Keep your Bowels active with the Pills, and tone up the system with Bitters or Tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. VINEGAR BITTERS
VEGETABLE — FREE FROM — PURELY — DR. WALKER'S — CALIFORNIA — ALCOHOL
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain longun well, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual on the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS twice a week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassfull. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

CORRESPONDENTS.—Jake of Milesburg, your Communication reached us a little too late for this issue. Hereafter please write upon but one side of the paper.

Pete Hopper.—Your article has been hung over for further consideration. Do you think that style of writing effective? Will it do any good?

Shaby.—We have been compelled to postpone the publication of your article to make room for political matter.

PAIN Cure Oil will do you good. A single trial will convince the most skeptical of its soothing and healing virtues. Sold Wholesale and Retail by F. P. Green.

LIST of Letters remaining in the Bellefonte Post Office, and unclaimed, July 29th, 1872.

Miss Angeline Croch, Thomas Downing, Harriet Dillard, Miss Elizabeth Fetzer, John Martin, C J Miller, Wm Sharp, Wm Schacker, Charles W Stroup, Miss Anna J Sweeny.

ACCIDENT.—A horse which Mr. B. V. Black was riding on Bishop street a day or two since, stumbled and fell, throwing the rider to the ground and injuring his arm and back considerably. We believe he has about recovered and we are glad of it as we cannot afford to lose such an energetic and useful man as Mr. Black.

THE friends and members of St. Paul's A. M. E. Church, will hold a festival and cake walk, at Bush's Hall, on Thursday evening, August 8th, for the benefit of their Church. They will also, have a pic-nic for the Sunday School children, on Thursday, Aug. 22nd, the Liberty Cornet Band is invited to discourse music on the occasion.

HONOR, &c.—George M. Yocum, Esq., member of the State Central Committee was in Harrisburg, last week attending a meeting of the Committee. The appointment of Mr. Yocum, is a good one. Besides being an ardent, earnest Republican, a reliable and able lawyer in Central Pennsylvania, he is well known as one of the most open hearted, unselfish and useful men in the County.

PRICE LIST.—We direct the attention of our readers to the price list of the Boston Boot and Shoe Store of this place, in another column of the REPUBLICAN. Mr. Batchelor, the proprietor, is determined not to be undersold, and proposes to give the public every week the benefit of his published "Price List," immediately under the "Bellefonte Grain Market."

ENTERPRISE.—Dr. Thomas R. Hayes, son-in-law of Hon. H. N. McAllister, has commenced the erection of a new house on Linn Street, near the late residence of Mrs. Gordon. We understand that when completed, this house will compare favorably with any of the houses lately built in this place, and we are glad that the energetic Doctor is providing such a pleasant home for his accomplished wife.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. John Apt, a laborer at Mann's Axe Factory, while dressing an axe on a large, new grind stone, was accidently killed by the bursting of the stone—which was running very rapidly. A spawl from the stone struck his left temple, and falling, he struck his head against an iron bar which broke through his skull, killing him almost instantly. Mr. Apt was an industrious and skillful workman and his loss is a sore calamity.

PIC-NIC.—The Methodist S. S., of this place indulged in a very pleasant excurtion and pic-nic, on Saturday last. Mr. Daniel Rhoads, Supt. of the Snow Shoe R. R., kindly provided four excursion cars, and as they moved out of the depot crowded with the full force of the school, the bright faces, lively prattle of the children and general holiday appearance of the whole party, was really delightful.

Rousing cheers from the happy crowd told every body along the road of happy hearts and bright anticipations. Up among the mountains where the air and water were cool and pure, and everything in keeping with the gay spirit of the excursionists, the cars halted and the day's fun began and did not end until the whistle of the returning train summoned them from the grandest, merriest frolic they have enjoyed for many a day.

This School is perhaps the largest in the County, and is in a most flourishing condition.

THE BUSH HOUSE.—We notice with pleasure the success of Messrs. W. H. Wilkinson & Co., proprietors of this house. Many men of capital here laughed at Col. D. G. Bush's enterprise when he built the hotel, said it was a poor investment, discouraged him all they could and showed their own enterprise by admiring the balance on their bank book. Mr. Bush was unfortunate for a year or two in getting capable parties to manage his house, but he never lost faith in his enterprise and now having secured the right men, we have abundant proof of his wisdom in building the hotel merely as an investment. not to speak of the advantage it is to the town. Mr W. H. Wilkinson is a gentleman who believes that hotels should be conducted by gentlemen, and with his graceful, genial young partner, Mr. Frank Grice, has demonstrated that education, and refinement are not hindrances to his success.

Every appointment in and about the hotel is regulated with mathematical precision. This principle so rigidly applied and carried out brought its success, and now the hotel is filled to overflowing with boarders from the cities. The guest will find the table equal to the hotels at any of the other resorts, and we doubt much if the same accomodations and luxuries can be procured any place else at such moderate charges.

The evenings at the Bush House are gay and charming. The lady boarders have inaugurated charades, theatricals, musicals, dancing and what not. Mrs. Wilkenson is a model of land ladies, and has won for herself much respect and admiration for her kindness and attention to the sick.

"the gracefulest lady of them all"

A contract has been made to put an additional wing of one hundred feet, containing seventy rooms, to the house, to meet the demands of next summer.

And thus the unmanageable Elephant of the past has grown into a larger, but a perfectly manageable and paying institution of the present.

PERSONALS.—Rev. J. H. Barnard formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Church, of this place, and one of the most talented, popular and energetic Ministers of the Gospel we have ever met, has been spending a few days here with his many friends and admirers. He preached to an overflowing audience on last Sabbath evening.

Joseph Neff, Esq., son of Col. Neff, this County, who is an honor to the legal fraternity of Freeport, Ill. visited us on Monday. His rich profusion of facial hair added to his many personal charms makes him very popular with the ladies. Wonder he don't marry some of the hoosier girls in his neighborhood.

Joseph Muffley, Esq., of Philadelphia, lawyer, insurance agent, and son-in-law of Mrs. Gordon, this place is spending a few days here abouts. He is a good lawyer, and an energetic man, well deserving of the success he has made in his Profession.

Mr. J. H. Myers, whose family has been spending the summer at the Bush House, paid us a visit on Monday. Mr. Myers is general agent, of the Rocherter Agricultural works, and has been doing a rushing business this Summer. He says the works were not able to furnish all the implements demanded. The season for him is over and he has gone home to prepare for next Summer's Campaign. He is a Greeley man; but otherwise is all right.

THE wigwam is almost completed. Its dimentions are 55 by 30 feet. It is substantially built, has a high ceiling, is well lighted and airy. It is just the building we need, is in the best and most convenient part of the town, just adjoining the REPUBLICAN Office, where it is sure to be inoculated with the purest of Republican principles.

The party has gone to some trouble and expense to erect this building, an expense never before incurred in this county, and would you know what it means? It means that the party is awake, is determined to leave nothing undone to redeem this County this fall, from the Court House Ring. There was never a time when honest democrats felt the oppressive lash of the leaders as at this time. There are enough of them in this County, whom we firmly believe will unite with us in rescuing Centre county, from the half dozen fodder chewers in the Court House Ring who claim to control the Democratic party.

RAIL ROAD MEETING.—We have just printed large Posters giving notice that a meeting will be held in the Court House, on Saturday evening, the 3rd of August, to make one more effort to secure sufficient funds to build the Railroad from Bellefonte to Oak Hall. We are informed that this is indeed the last effort. Our citizens and the farmers and capitalists of the county must now come forward and subscribe liberally, or be deprived of the benefits of this road forever. Do our merchants feel the necessity of this road? If you do not, it is high time you would.

Without this connecting link, our town will become a sheep pasture, and our County will certainly be divided with Centre Hall, as the County seat of the new county. Let there be a full turn out, and let every one come prepared to subscribe liberally. The road must be built.

[For the REPUBLICAN].

UNIONVILLE, July 27th, 1872.

FRIEND COL.—We have been waiting patiently for something to occur in our Village, or vicinity, that would make a first class local for your valuable paper, and at last we are called upon to notice a destructive fire that alarmed our citizens on last Saturday. Between 12 and 1 P. M., we were aroused by the alarm of fire and upon going up town, discovered it to be a large two story frame house, belonging to Chas. Smith, Sr., and occupied by J. Jones and Jas. Van Valin. It appears one of the tenants was engaged in baking and ironing, and the Stove necessarily, very hot. The fuel being wood, sparks in abundance were generated; hence the fire. The upper portion of the west end of the house was in flames when it was discovered. The whole fabric was level with the ground in about one hour. Nearly all the furniture was saved, after which the citizens worked heroically to save our new School house, the store of Griest and Rumberger, the dwelling of Mr. Smith, and the barn of Geo. Taylor, all of which were within a few feet of the burning mass. The wind being favorable, the element was stayed, otherwise the loss would have been great. Five of Babcock's extinguishers, were on hand, but were of no avail on the burning house, the fire having gained such headway, although they rendered great service in saving other property. The loss falls heavily on Mr. Smith, as he is a poor man, and had no insurance on the property.

We are also improving as a borough. Mr. John Stover, has just erected a beautiful brick dwelling on Chestnut St., below the ware house, and Joseph Alexander, we understand, will in a very short time erect quite a large brick on his farm just below town. We are all busy here now, yet we find time occassionally to talk politics, and as Greeley men are scarce, cannot get up a quarrel. We notice with very considerable degree of pride the flattering notices you are receiving from the press throughout the State. We hope Col. you will receive the nomination, then you will represent our district at the next Congress, of that there can be no doubt. I have heard a number of your old friends express their sentiments, and they are with you to a man. Depend upon us, as a worker in your behalf. UNIS.

NEW BANK BUILDING.—The new building of the First National Bank is rapidly approaching completion. When finished it will be far the handsomest building in the town. Mr. Edward Humes with his characteristic enterprise has procured the very best building material. The brown stones used in ornamenting corners and windows are brought from Hummelstown near Harrisburg, and the white marble stone from Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Wm. V. Hughes; the contractor, personally oversees the workman and says he's "building it just to show what he 'can' do." He is assisted by the indefatigable Charley McCafferty as sub contractor, who with his corps of masons grinds every stone down til it fits with mathematical precision He knows how to do it and as proof we refer you to the pretty, smooth walls in course or erection.

When completed and the money's, papers and fixtures, including William Jones, the Vice President, are removed to this new building, we expect ninety day paper will be handled with new sharp shears and rates down to the regulation six per cent. Why not?

[For the REPUBLICAN.]

ON Monday, at a meeting of the colored voters of this place, a Republican Grant Club was organized with Mr. M. S. Graham, as President, Mr. C. Enas, as Secretary. After organizing, addresses were delivered by Mr. John Welch, W. H. Thomas, Rev. A. A. Williams and others, who eloquently advocated the Republican principles, and traced what each party had done. The Democratic party was found wanting in every interest, which tended to benefit and advance them as a race.

After transacting other preliminary business the club adjourned to meet Monday eve. August 5th. C. ENAS, Secretary.

WATER.—Commissioner Strickland is out in a proclamation informing the public that the water will be or has been turned on, or off, or something like that, for some time past or some time in futuro.

We got him to solve the enigma himself, and the facts are. Water was turned off yesterday at nine o'clock, was turned on this morning from six to nine and will be off all day to-morrow except from six till nine A. M. We have since learned that the fault was not Mr. Strickland's but in the printing which was done at the 'Watchman' office. How plain it is now.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!!—We hereby give Notice to all persons having unsettled accounts in the Firm Book of Keller & Musser, that if said accounts are not settled by the 15th of August next, there accounts will be left in the hands of J. P. Gephart, Esq., for collection.

CENTRE HILL, July 22, 1872.

MR. EDITOR:—In looking over the columns of the Watchman of the 19th inst. We saw it stated that the surplus wheat of the State of California, is estimated at 600,000,000 bushels. This estimate is as ridiculous and about as near the truth as most of the Watchman's estimates. Either the editor of the Watchman is very ignorant of the extent and products of California, or else, think the people of Centre county will believe anything coming from that Meek source.

Let us, for one moment, look at this vast amount. Allowing the average yield per acre, to be 20 bushels, the average yield in 1867 being only 16 bushels, in that State, it would require 30,000,000 acres to raise this vast amount, allowing 40 working days for Harvesting and one Reaper, to cut 10 acres per day, or 400 acres in 40 days, it would require 75,000 reapers to cut the grain; and with an average of 7 men to a reaper, it would require 525,000 men and 2 horses to each reaper, it would require 150,000 horses. To thresh this crop it would require 5000 separators, threshing 400 bushels per day, and running 300 days. Allowing 10 horses to each separator, it would require 50,000 horses, and with 10 men to each separator, it would give employment to the same number of men. Besides this, it would require 4 men with a team of 4 horses, to gather the wheat from the field, and take it to the machine for threshing, which would require 20,000 men and the same number of horses. On an average, it would require 4 teams to carry 400 bushels to market, per day, which would again require 40,000 horses, and 20,000 men. Total, for threshing, it would give employment to 90,000 men, and 110,000 horses, for one year.

But allowing only two months for threshing, for farmers there, like here, have other things to attend to. To thresh this crop in 50 days, would require 30,000 separators threshing 400 bushels per day, and allowing 16 men to each machine (8 to thresh, 4 to gather the grain from the field, and 4 to haul to market), it would require 480,000 men. Or again to ship this grain, it would require 1,500,000 cars, containing 400 bushels each; allowing 20 cars to a train it would make 75,000 trains, or 206 trains per day for one year, which would require a train to leave San Francisco every 7 minutes. Pshaw! this is a little too wheaty to believe. We can't quite swallow it. It is evident Meek does not know much about farming, which is bad for a Democratic editor, and yet this wheat story comes as near being truth as most of Meek's statements; for it is with statements and estimates of a political nature quite as thin as this one, that the Watchman is filled from week to week.

When Meek says he will not support Greeley and Brown, we are just as ready to believe it as we are to believe his wheat estimate. Already we can penetrate the veil. He is afraid of giving the Pennsvalley Democrats an overdose, which would act as an emetic and they would vomit up the whole thing. As it is, there is some terrible retching done.

He is now inciting them to make every effort to elect Buckalew, and if they are successful, Meek with the others will then swallow the dainty morsel so neatly prepared for them at Baltimore. Meek's subterfuge is unnecessary, like his wheat story, it is too palpable; besides this, it is not fair.

The Pennsvalley Democrats, as you well know, Meek, have no opinions of their own; they have been clinging to the Watchman's apron strings, and now to cut off the strings, and leave them only the part they have been holding to for years, is cruel and unjust. They are groping around in darkness; despair is marked on their pallid countenance; they take up every issue of the Watchman with feverish anxiety and hurriedly scan its hallowed pages, thinking to gather from it one ray of hope, one straw to indicate which way Meek blows; but again comes that hard, stony look, which too plainly tells their disappointment and despair. You must come over soon and tell them what you intend to do, or like the Israelites who left Egypt, they will never reach the Promised Land, for they are getting fearfully demoralized.

Yours, smilingly,
KRINO.

LOST.—On Saturday evening, July 29, 1872., Capt. P. E. Sellers, of Patton tp., lost his pocket book, between Roopsburg and his residence. It contained between $15 or $25 in money; check of General Sickles, Pension Agent, of Philadelphia for $12,00; certificate of deposite in Centre County Bank, to amount of $55, and two notes on P. A. Sellers to amount of $2,647, and other valuable papers. A liberal reward, by returning the book, papers and money to the owner, or leaving it at this office, will be paid by

P. E. SELLERS.

"B. DADD" says that when you see a grown-up couple of the male and female persuasion sitting on the front stoop at eleven o'clock at night, you can bet odds that they are not brother and sister—and win every time.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA, July 20, '72.

COL. W. W. BROWN:—A friend today, handed me a copy of your excellent paper, and also one of the Watchman, and in glancing over their pages I recognized many names familiar to me in my boy-hood. It has prompted me to write a letter for the REPUBLICAN, which may or may not be of interest to your readers. When I first knew you, and began to scribble a line or two for the old Centre Democrat, there were scarcely two hundred miles of railroad West of the Allegheny Mountains. Now, I have only to walk five hundred yards, get in the train and without change of cars, land in Bellefonte. Nearly two thousand miles of rail bind us to-gether. In looking over your paper, I was carried back to the days long since past, when I used to play along Spring Creek, and thought Pennsvalley, (by the way one of the loveliest vallies on earth) the only inhabitable portion of the globe. Eight years have elapsed since I saw it; but my love for its green fields and hills has not in any manner diminished, and I often pant for its still water brooks.

I love the West and its people for their breadth of thought, and for their energy but one occasionally tires of too much exertion. Everything goes here on the high pressure principle. I see that your name has been favorably mentioned for Congress, from the old 18th, District. If there is any Grant Republican that I would wish to see in Congress, above another, it would be you, for the reason that as long as I can remember you have done yeoman service for the cause. I would sooner see you among the friends of reform than where you are; but as you, among a few others first taught me to be governed by conviction, I have high respect, notwithstanding our difference of opinion now, for your present course. * * * * * *

[The writer here informs us that A. V. Larimore, formerly of this place, but for many years a resident of Council Bluffs, is, although a Democrat, an ardent Greeley man. We supposed the Judge would swallow Greeley & Brown without making a wry face upon the principle of "Anything to beat Grant," you know. We also learn that Geo. J. Boal, Jno. P. Burrows, Wm. Riley and John T. Jack, all natives of Boalsburg, this County, are now residents of Iowa, and doing well financially.—EDITOR].

Miss Kate Larimore and the children of Harvey Larimore, Esq., deceased, one of my former playmates arrived here yesterday to make their home in the West. Judge Larimore has just completed a handsome residence on one of the most beautiful and romantic positions in the city, where the new comers have taken up their abode. I have not seen them yet, but all wish them abundance of happiness.

Come out and see us. During the Summer. We have had quite a large number of visits from Pennsylvania editors, and always glad to see them.

Yours, &c.,
JNO. H. KEATLEY.

HOW TO GO WEST.—This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and from the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Centre County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

"This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa. no-28-4-mo.

NEWSPAPERS.—If a young lady wishes a gentleman to kiss her, what papers would she mention? No Spectator, no Observer, but as many Times as you please. We wish to add that she would like it done with Dispatch, no Register or Journal kept of it, and for him not to Herald it, or mention it to a Recorder or Chronicle it abroad. Her lips should be the only Repository, and the Sun should be excluded if possible. If a Messenger got it, the World would soon know it, for News is now carried by Telegraph to all parts of the Globe where it was formerly done by the Courier, who was always ready to Gazette it. In the act, the Press upon the lips should be light and the Union perfect—assuring ourselves that no Argus eye was upon us and the only Reflector present the Mirror. Review the case as you will no Plain Dealer in fact could be more Independent in this fast Age.—Huntingdon Globe.

We think if she were an intelligent young lady she would desire to be kissed by a Republican editor, and would not wish any Watchman about.

THE Allentown Chronicle says: "For the satisfaction of the Greeley managers we will state, upon the authority of a gentleman who can be implicitly relied upon, that the number of Democrats in this city alone who will not vote the Liberal ticket has increased to nearly three hundred. Many of them have made up their minds to do their thinking and voting quietly, and the Greeley leaders will not be convinced of the truth of our statements until after the election. The most of them are men of strong nerve, and neither the threats of the Allentown Democrat, nor the whip of McClure, can force them to vote for candidates whom they despise. The good men of both parties will unite against the election of Greeley and Brown, and the establishment of a party that would involve the country in disaster."

THE ex-Confederate Generals do not swallow Greeley. Joe Johnston said a short time ago that if Greeley would agree to die within a month of his election, as Harrison did, he (Johnston) might consent to give him a lift—not otherwise.

MARRIED.

On the 28th inst., at the M. E. Parsonage, Milesburg, by Rev. J. W. Cleaver, George Jodon and Miss Eliza Johnston.

DIED.

On the 18th inst., of cutting teeth and spasms, infant son of William and Elizabeth Cain, aged 1 year, 1 month, and 16 days.

Of Cholera infantum in this Borough Esther Ann Ray daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Ray aged about Six months.

"Father, we will be comforted!
Thou wast the gracious Giver;
We yield her up—not dead, not dead—
To dwell with Thee forever!
Take Thou our child! ours for a day,
Thine while the ages blossom!
This little shining head we lay,
In the Redeemer's bosom!"

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE SALE OF PATENT MEDICINES

Has in no other country reached the enormous proportions it has assumed in the United States. This is owing to the vast extent of territory and the comparative thinness of population, which creates the necessity for some reliable remedy, that can be applied at once in the absence of professional medical aid.

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS has for over ten years been regarded as

and is relied on in every emergency by thousands of families in every section of the country. It is not a fancy drink, composed of bad whisky, flavored with aromatics, to tickle the palate and minister to a depraved appetite, but is a carefully and scientifically prepared compound extract of Roots, Herbs and Barks, possessing great medicinal virtue. Its rare combination presents the most effectual remedy yet discovered for all diseases of the stomach, Liver Kidneys and Bowels. Sold everywhere at One Dollar per Bottle.

☞BY ONE OF THE LEADING PHYSICIANS of Philadelphia city.—A careful examination of mortuary statistics establishes the fact that one adult person out of every six dies of consumption, and so alarmingly is this disease gaining the ascendancy over all other ills to which flesh is heir, that its approach to one's immediate circle is regarded with perfect horror. If you will carefully examine the records of Materia Medica you will invariably discover that the general want of success in treating diseases has not been a deficiency of pathological knowledge of the functions affected, but of a suitable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathetic affections.

This want has at last been met in the Bitter Wine of Iron, prepared by the celebrated Dr. E. F. Kunkle, No 259 North Ninth street, Philadelphia. This excellent compound can be taken by persons with the most delicate stomach without any debilitating effect always giving strength and largely increasing the nervous energy of the patient. In all cases of pulmonary complaints it is admirably adapted to relieve the severity of the symptoms in the advanced stages of the disease, or to arrest it in its incipiency. If you want something that will give you strength, a good appetite, build up your constitution, and in place of moroseness and a lack of energy, give you a brisk and vigorous feeling, try Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It has already received the meed of praise from thousands who have tested its virtues, and for many years maintained its reputation with unfaded popularity.

Price $1 per bottle. E. F. KUNKEL, Sole Proprietor, No. 259 North Ninth street, below Vine, Philadelphia.
